

President's Message

Happy New Year!

EWI's Fiscal year (October 1 – September 30) gave us a jump start on the year ahead. What have we accomplished thus far?

- EWI Honolulu Chapter is energized with a FUN~FRESH~PRESENT theme
- EWI Honolulu Past Presidents shared a bit of history at October's membership meeting
- A beach house retreat stimulated creativity and unified the Board. Strategic planning and interactive activities conveyed the value of engaging representatives. EWI mission focus and EWI branding will reinforce our quality organization.
- Reading Rally at Honolulu Zoo's Learning Center: 100 attendees
- Four New Member Firms
- Holiday hats & attire generated festivity as we progressed to resolve the GET issue. Connections prevailed as Lisa Yamada pointed us to a specific person that will discount the penalties and interest!! Thank you for being PRESENT to act on our challenge, Lisa!

Personally, I am blessed to lead an awesome Board of Directors! Each individual possesses incredible talent that they are so willing to share. This Board truly cares about YOU! I've witnessed positive changes. I see growth as leaders evolve, and I'm excited as each step moves us towards new heights!

Wanda Sanchez diligently dedicates hours to revamp the multiple budget draft revisions as new information presents different scenarios.

April Tengan cheerfully prepares agendas and correspondence. HMSA generously printed Golf Tournament posters and other marketing materials displaying the fresh EWI Logos.

Cora Kim effectively delegates responsibilities to the Communications & Marketing committee while keeping track of deadlines. Cora absorbs and implements ideas communicated to the Board. Please notice the website update.

Maegan Brandt and the Ways & Means Committee are Jazzed committing to two fundraising events. Thanks Ways & Means for accepting the challenge! Save the dates: "Jazz it up with EWI & Michael Paulo" on March 10, 2012 and August 24, 2012 EWI Golf Tournament.

Leianne Pedro and the Membership Crew increased the Member Firm Goal to 55. Right on! Successes include Archipelago Hawaii, City Mill, Lamination House, and Social Wahines. With non-renewal notices expected, assist your Membership Crew! Please forward quality Member Firm prospects.

Debbie Hirasaki tracts RSVPs by email & voice mail time stamp! Sergeant-at-Arms committee sacrifices missing part of the program waiting for late arrivals. Enjoy the connections at 5:30 p.m. Debbie won Best Holiday Attire in her Santa suit....fantastic!

Adele Tasaka and the Program Committee graciously coordinate my detailed requests for meetings. An extra emphasis is placed on Programs because meetings are critical to our membership. Attendance and energy at Membership Meetings determine the heartbeat of an organization. Monthly meetings must be worth your valued time and keep you motivated to return.

Brenda Kanno religiously keeps our policies & procedures in order tracking necessary documentation for the Chapter. As mentioned previously, Brenda is EWI Honolulu's only Past Corporate President. Brenda chairs the Corporate Finance Committee this year. She will be a wealth of information as EWI Corporate moves towards 12 month annual renewals versus Calendar year renewals.

Lauralei Tanaka and the Philanthropy team targeted 100% participation collecting goodies to send the US Troops. The special stickers visually recognized participants. Lauralei's expertise was instrumental in preparing the GET documents.

Shelley Okubo provides continued support while scholarship Chairs Jane Rock and Wendy Kia are orchestrating incredible 2012 EWISP and ASIST programs.

So what are your goals for 2012? What are you going to do different to get a desired result?

VP/President Elect Nadine Uratsuka challenged herself to get a fresh experience by doing something different. If you missed December's meeting, be sure to ask her about Coach. Nadine will perfectly step over and continue the momentum this amazing Board of Directors generated.

Be part of the 2012 achievement!

EWI December Business Meeting

December 7, 2011

Ka Ikena Dining Room – Kapiolani Community College

It was a festive evening as everyone got into the spirit to mark the holiday season upon us. The Program Committee challenged everyone attending the dinner to dress in your favorite holiday attire and holiday hat for the night. Debbie Hirasaki (Business Insurance Services, Inc.) won by a unanimous vote for “Best Holiday Attire.” And, Star Miranda (Plaza Club) won a prize for “Best Hat.”

Donations were also collected for the I Love Troops project organized by Lauralei Tanaka, (HTH Corporation) Philanthropy Chair and her Philanthropy Committee. Members collected snacks, books, magazines, and other goodies to be mailed to the troops in care packages early next year.

Business was also conducted at December’s members’ only meeting. The 2012 proposed budget was approved by the membership. Each director reported on the latest happenings for their committee. Maegan Brandt (Insurance Solutions, LLC), Ways & Means Director, also announced a spring fundraising event. Save the date – Saturday, March 10, 2012 at the Hawaii Convention Center for a jazz festival featuring saxophonist, Michael Paulo! More details to follow. We’ll need everyone’s support at the spring event and our annual EWI Golf Tournament to be held on Friday, August 24, 2012 to reach our fundraising goal this year.

We also welcomed Nadine Uratsuka (Accuity LLP) as our new Vice President/President-elect for 2011-2012. Nadine shared her enthusiasm for an exciting year ahead. Thank you Nadine!

Other announcements included Jane Rock (Neal S. Blaisdell), EWISP Director, advising all of us of the change in the EWISP scholarship. Previously, the EWISP scholarship awarded high school juniors based on merit. This year, EWI corporate has changed the scholarship to award high school seniors. The scholarship applications will now be based on 50% merit and 50% need. Jane and her committee will be busy creating a template for other years to follow.

Congratulations also goes out to Shelley Okubo (Aqua Hotels & Resorts) for her position as Corporate Vice-Chair, Recruitment & Retention Committee with an emphasis on Executive Engagement. Shelley will be sharing her experiences with the corporate committee as the year goes on.

The next board meeting is scheduled for Thursday, December 22, 2011 at 6:00 p.m. at Buca di Beppo. Our next membership meeting will be held on Wednesday, January 11, 2012 at 5:30 p.m. at the Oahu Country Club.

Happy Holidays to All!
